Walk 92:

I first consider this to have been a great privilege for me, because I worked with so many wonderful servants of our Lord, the spirit of which I'll never forget and will always cherish the thought of. I want to thank our community for giving me that opportunity, as it opened my eyes to what I can only describe as the Glory of God. I also want to thank all those sponsors who never gave up and pressed on from the beginning, as well as the Board who persevered as the Walk was planned. Throughout the Walk, I saw many serving selflessly but also in joy, despite the task, and believe me it was humbling. For Pilgrims of Walk 92, I saw a lot of enthusiasm, patience, and fellowship throughout the Walk. Their responses to the talks indicated to me that they enjoyed them and appreciated the lay speakers and clergy who all gave wonderful talks. I am still amazed that each speaker had so much personally to add to their talks, just as though God had arranged it all. Many times during the weekend I found myself commenting that the Pilgrims had such a good attitude toward the Walk and toward each other. I especially enjoyed our time in the Chapel together. I can't help but feel that we were all brought closer together by the whole experience. I am only encouraged by that weekend and I praise God for it!

With thanks,
Mark Anderegg

Walk 93:

God is so good! I was truly blessed to be able to walk along side God as we journeyed through Walk 93 together. From the very beginning of the planning stages, to the team selection and team training, throughout the entire weekend and to the comments made by the women at closing, God's hand was evident. He put together a remarkable team - I believe the best ever! Everyone worked together so well - everything just clicked. and the pilgrims were definitely hand picked by God for just this time. It was amazing to watch how the talks worked together and spoke to similar issues among the pilgrims and team members alike. I thank the Emmaus board for trusting in me to lead this special group of women to a closer walk with our Lord and Savior.

Trusting in Him,
Susan Helmey
